Call for Mini-Symposia

Proposals for Mini-Symposia are welcomed. Delegates willing to organize a Mini-Symposium dedicated to special topics are invited to contact the AIDAA 2017 Organizing Committee at symposia@AIDAA2017.com.

The organizer of the Mini-Symposium is responsible for advertising the event and is responsible for selecting, reviewing the papers and he/she will join the AIDAA 2017 Scientific Committee. Papers should be written in English and must conform to the submission policy (<http://www.aidaa2017.com/papers-and-symposia/papers.html>).

A list of the accepted mini-symposia will be published on the conference website together with the contact of the organizer(s).

Papers accepted for Mini-Symposia will be published in the Electronic Proceedings of AIDAA2017. The Scientific Committee will select also the best papers to be considered for publication on the AIDAA journal AerotecnicaMissili e Spazio – Journal of Aerospace Sciences Technologies and Systems (www.aerotecnica.eu).

A Mini-Symposium should consist of at least 5 papers presentations. The Mini-Symposium organizers will be granted 1 free registration for every 7 registered papers.

Proposals to organize Mini-Symposia should include the following information:

1. The title
2. The name, affiliation, and e-mail address(es) of the organizer(s)
3. An abstract (maximum one page) describing the topic of the Session.

The deadline for proposal submission is May 14, 2017. The acceptance of the mini-symposia will be notified to the Organizer(s) by the AIDAA2017 Organizing Committee.

Full Length papers accepted by the Mini-Symposium organizer(s) should be submitted directly to the AIDAA2017 Organizing Committee, by using the email address symposia@AIDAA2017.com, no later than July 15 2017.
